

Maules Creek Open Day – FAQ

What is happening?

Whitehaven Coal is holding a Community Open Day at its Maules Creek Mine on Saturday 29 October.

Who is able to attend the day?

The day is open to residents of Boggabri and Gunnedah and Narrabri Shires only.

What will be happening on the day?

Activities on the day will include a site tour, displays and a barbecue.

How do I register?

To express an interest in attending, people must complete all sections of a Whitehaven form. These are available from Gunnedah Tourist Information Centre, Narrabri Tourist Information Centre, Boggabri Book Exchange or the Whitehaven Office in Conadilly Street in Gunnedah.

Completed forms must be returned to one of these places.

Places on the Open Day are strictly limited so registration is required.

Where does the day depart from?

Travel to and from Maules Creek mine will be by coach. The departure point for the coaches will be Merton Street in Boggabri. Only pre-registered guests will be able to board and Photo ID will be required prior to departure. All guests will need to make their own way to and from Boggabri. Guests should allow time prior to their bus departure.

How long will the day take?

From departing Boggabri to returning will take 3 hours.

What are the departure times?

Coaches will depart from Boggabri at 9am, 10am, 11am and at 12.20pm. Places are strictly limited so all guests must confirm their preferred departure times.

While Whitehaven will make every effort to place guests on their first choice departure, this cannot be guaranteed. Whitehaven will contact confirmed attendees with their booked departure prior to the day.

Clothing and safety requirements

Guests will be visiting an operating mine site and should co-operate with instructions from mine staff at all times. All attendees must wear long pants, a long sleeve shirt and closed in footwear. No smoking is permitted on site at any time.

Who do I contact if I have any questions?

Contact Mick Heap, Whitehaven Coal Community Relations representative, on 0447 038 000
